Boy Sneezes 17,000 Times

MURRAY, Utah (AP) — Jeff Simper, 13, sneezed the morning of Nov. 26. And he's sneezed more than 17,000 times since. Twice a minute of every waking hour. His doctors say they have found neither cause nor cure. "The only time he doesn't sneeze is when he's asleep, and the only time he can sleep is when we give him a sedative," said his mother, Mrs. Ralph D. Simper.

Shaw Trial Set For Jan. 21

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A trial date of Jan. 21 has been set for Clay Shaw, a retired New Orleans businessman charged with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy. Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison announced the date Wednesday with a new blast at the federal government, which he accuses of trying to block the trial. "These efforts to interfere with the case have been because the federal government does not want the case to go to trial and does not want the people of America to know that the Warren Commission was a complete fraud," he said. The U.S. Supreme Court refused last Monday to block state prosecution in the controversial case. Criminal Dist. Court Judge Edward Haggerty, who would preside over the trial, said he had ordered that 250 prospective jurors be available in January. Garrison said his chief assistant, James L. Alcock, would handle prosecution but that he expects to take an active part. Alcock said he expects new defense pleadings which could result in postponement. Shaw, 55, was arrested March 1, 1967, a few days after Garrison confirmed he was conducting his own investigation of the assassination. The district attorney contends Shaw conspired with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to kill President Kennedy, who was slain by a sniper in Dallas in 1963. The Warren Commission said that, based on the best evidence it could find, Oswald acted alone.

Condemned Men Get New Trial

RALEIGH (AP) — Two Raleigh men, convicted of murder in Guilford County and sentenced to die, will get a new trial because persons opposed to capital punishment were excluded from the jury. The State Supreme Court granted the new trial Wednesday to Joseph Eugene Spence and Glenwood O'Neill Williams, accused of slaying Alton A. Maynard, a Durham taxi driver. In its decision, a divided court upheld the death penalty in North Carolina. Two of the justices, William H. Bobbitt and Susie Sharp, said the death penalty had been abolished under recent federal court decisions, but the other five justices disagreed with them. Spence and Williams are also under indictment in Granville County in the slaying of two other men while they were escaping from the Dorothea Dix State Mental Hospital in Raleigh. Justice Bobbitt said he thought Spence and Williams should be returned to Guilford County and sentenced to life imprisonment. He wrote, "upon invalidation of the death penalty, the only permissible punishment is life imprisonment."

Debra Barnes To Be Wed

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Debra Barnes, whose year-long reign as Miss America ended in September, has announced she will be married Jan. 25 in her home town of Moran, Kan. Miss Barnes and Mitchell Miles of Pittsburg, Kan., announced their engagement in September. Miss Barnes disclosed the time and place in an interview at Topeka with radio station WREN.

Psychology Worked

Mary Killeen, left, 21, of Palatine, Ill., and Eileen Bina, 20, Chicago, both psychology majors at Mundelein College in Chicago, were credited Wednesday with "out-psyching" a convicted rapist who entered their north side dormitory apartment. The girls said the armed intruder settled for a kiss from each and a three-hour interview on their personal lives. Police later arrested a man the girls identified as the intruder. (AP Wirephoto)

Hijacked Passengers Eat Steak In Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Passengers aboard a hijacked jetliner ate steak in Cuba Wednesday. "It was not bad at all. I think while their calm hijacker and most of the people rather enjoyed it except we had about a 2 1/2 hours bus ride" to Varadero, where the passengers were picked up by a second plane. Seven crew members and all but two of the 32 passengers aboard the inaugural flight of a Nashville-to-Miami Trans-World Airlines route returned to Miami Wednesday night aboard separate planes. The hijack couple, both appearing in their 20s, were detained at the airport for 6 1/2 hours before they were taken away by Cuban authorities. Newsman in Cuba reported the man, who carried a trumpet, and the woman dozed on couches. Usually hijackers are met at the plane by Cuban authorities and whisked away immediately. Two passengers, country singer Tex Ritter and professional golfer Mason Rudolph, said the Cubans fed the stranded travelers grapefruit juice, beer, steaks and sandwiches during their nine-hour stay. "You had the feeling they were milking it for what it was worth," Ritter said after returning to Miami. "At the end of the day you decided they were pretty nice people. I think that's what they had in mind. "Officially," Mrs. Cleaver said, "the last time I saw Eldridge was Nov. 24. But unofficially, I saw him last night." Mrs. Cleaver, 23, said her husband did not intend to return to prison in San Francisco, adding: "He'll be assassinated if he goes back. They tried to kill him three times before, in prison... "Eldridge told me he would rather be killed in a fair fight out in the open than be taken back to prison."

Whistling Student To Stay In School

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Joe Engressia, the blind student who whistled his way through long distance telephone circuits to place free calls around the nation, will be allowed to remain in school, it was announced Wednesday. Although the telephone company did not want to prosecute, the 19-year-old Engressia was temporarily suspended from the University of South Florida. Engressia, blind since birth, appealed, citing his "between an 'A' and 'B' average." He was allowed back but placed on probation until the end of the quarter in March. Also, he was ordered to pay $25 to "a worthy cause." Engressia said he made that much on calls by whistling to dial the numbers wanted.

The Nixon Hour Went Off Smoothly

NEW YORK (AP) — The special program, which one of the networks billboarded simply as "The Nixon Cabinet," was carried off smoothly and with split-second timing Wednesday night. President-elect Nixon informally addressed a roomful of appointees and their families in a Washington hotel and the nation via television and radio to introduce the dozen members of his Cabinet. All networks decided to handle the void in the same, familiar fashion. They called in their correspondents for round-table discussions and off-the-cuff analysis. Since most of the more important appointments were pretty well known in advance, the experts had been able to do a little preliminary thinking about viewpoints and could talk rather fluently about the men, their style of operation and make some guesses about the problems they would be tackling. Live discussion came from ABC's roundtable, led by Frank Reynolds with William Lawrence, John Scali and Joseph C. Harsch joining in. They were not always in agreement and tended to debate, which is enlightening. Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass headlined Wednesday night's "Music Hall" hour on NBC, but the show somehow lacked the imagination and excitement that made the Alpert specials of recent seasons such treats. The program also included Louis Armstrong, and their was certainly nothing the matter with the brass. Alpert, while an exciting musician, is not at his best reading lines, and he was given a lot of them, including some hopefully funny stuff, in the show. There was a pretty dismal comedy bit with Jackie Vernon, the dead pan comic, trying for jokes by playing trumpet off-key.
